

On the 11 August at 5 p.m. in La Villa – Alta Badia– it will be staged in Castle Colz, thanks to the kind permission of the owner Mrs. Waltraud Wieser Pizzinini, the event In the Castle of legends, dedicated to opera music and to the ancient tradition of ladin legends. This year it is on the programme a ladin homage to Giuseppe Verdi in the 200th birthday anniversary.

Susy Rottonara, musician and soprano from La Villa, will sing some of the most famous arias of the operas La Traviata, Un ballo in maschera and Falstaff, accompanied on the piano by Ulrich Willeit.

The author Roland Verra will present some ladin legends compared to the imaginary world of Verdi's operas in the magic atmosphere of the Castle.

The event aims to enhance Castle Colz, one of the most important historic-artistic buildings of Alta Badia through a particular programme.

Admission: 12 €, aperitif included. Space limited, numbered seats. Information and reservation: Tourist Office Badia (lavilla@altabadia.org/0471 847037). Organisation by Cultural Association Fanes and Tourist Office Badia.